DHS announces modified classroom schedules at Frederiksted and Kingshill Head Start due to water access challenges

U.S. VIRGIN ISLANDS - The Virgin Islands Department of Human Services (VIDHS), Office of Head Start, is notifying parents and guardians of students at Frederiksted Head Start, that school will be closed today to conduct emergency water pump and internal water line repairs to address a water leak reported this past weekend.

In addition, Kingshill Head Start will continue to operate on a half-day schedule this week in response to water pressure issues in that service area. Operating hours will be from 7:30 a.m. -12:00 p.m. until further notice, to accommodate similar repairs to the facility. Parents will be notified of changes to the schedule.

The VI Department of Human Services apologizes for any inconvenience.

For more information, please visit the Department of Human Services website, www.dhs.gov.vi or on Facebook (<https://www.facebook.com/usvidhs>) at US Virgin Islands Department of Human Services.

The Department of Human Services (VIDHS) exists to provide social services to members in our community with diverse needs. In times of national uncertainty and hardship we act as a safety-net and exist to inspire hope and empower change through non-judgmental, quality delivery of needed services and resources.
